LOCAL MATTERS

For this section fair, slightly warmer weather, except along the coast nearly stationary & temperature variable winds.

THE MUSICAL ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of the Alexandria Musical Association was held last night, the attendance being much larger than at any previous one. Officers for the year 1889 were elected unanimously as follows: Park Agnew, president; J. T. Sweeney, vice president; J. T. Johnson, secretary; E. F. Price, treasurer; and R. P. Alchison, J. H. Milstead, P. M. K. Baldwin, C. A. Strangmann, Park Agnew, E. F. Price, executive committee. P. M. K. Baldwin, musical director. A very handsome gold mounted baton, the gift of Mr. Harry Clark, of Baltimore, was presented to the association, as was also a handsome eight-day Seth Thomas regulator in solid case, the gift of Mr. Henry Wildt, of this city, a member of the association, which were accepted and the thanks of the association tendered the donors. After the transaction of all business, President Agnew rose and said that he had been selected by the members of the association to perform a very pleasant office, the presentation to Mr. Baldwin of a watch, the gift of his friends as a token of their regard and an appreciation of his services. Mr. Agnew's remarks were of a very happy character and much enjoyed. Mr. Baldwin was much surprised, and said he could do nothing more than simply thank his friends, because speech making was not his forte. The watch, which was purchased of Mr. Henry Wildt, is a solid gold Waltham stem-winder; on one side it has the initials of Mr. Baldwin in a handsome monogram, and on the other side "A. M. A., 1889." The association will give a public concert at its hall on the evening of Thursday, Jan. 24th.

COLUMBIA S. F. E. Co.—The annual meeting of this company was held last night, President W. A. Smoot in the chair. Two applications for active membership were received and referred to the proper committees. The company then proceeded to elect officers for the ensuing year with the following result: President, W. A. Smoot; 1st Vice President, A. T. Ramsay; 2nd Vice President, J. H. Strider; Secretary, J. T. Johnson; Assistant Secretary, S. T. Jenkins; Treasurer, G. A. Appich; Foreman, G. N. Duff; Commander of Hose, James H. Mansfield; 1st Assistant, Chas. Duffey; 2nd do, Robt. Evans; Axemen, Joseph Purcell and Robt. Cline; Pipemen, John Padgett, J. L. Duffey, Frank Petty, James H. Smith, Wm. Craven and Thos. Waddley; Hosemen, James Warren, J. B. Arnold, Francis Carroll, Fred. Ford, Herbert Smith, Ben. Hughes, George Kine; Executive Committee, Thos. Leadbeater, Geo. Uhler, Henry Smith, Fred. Ford, Samuel T. Jenkins, William H. Wood, William Simpson. A resolution of thanks was tendered Mr. A. A. Ward for his very acceptable present to the company. The following resolution was unanimously adopted: "That this company, with a view of pride, orders Mr. Leonard Campbell, engineer, and Mr. Henry Posey, driver, for the faithful manner in which they have performed their respective duties and recommended to the Board of Fire Wardens their reelection." The meeting then adjourned.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—Mr. Jordan W. Lambert, president of the Lambert Pharmacal Company and a well-known citizen, owing to the prominent part he has taken in many of the public enterprises of St. Louis, is seriously ill at his residence in Vandeventer place, grave doubts being expressed by the attending physicians as to his recovery. Mr. Lambert was attacked with a severe cold on the 7th ult., which was followed by nervous prostration, and he has been confined to his bed since that time, his illness growing more serious every day. Dr. Chancellor says the illness from which Mr. Lambert is suffering is known as neurasthenia, or loss of nerve power, the result of overwork and severe mental strain. The condition of Mr. Lambert was not so favorable yesterday as was expected by his physicians, he having been seized with paralysis of the throat during the day. —St. Louis Republic, Jan. 1.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cool and clear with four prisoners and eight lockers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Charles Lee, colored, arrested by officer Hayes for disorderly conduct, was fined $2. Two white girls, arrested by officer Simpson for disorderly conduct and Geo. Maywood, arrested by officer Taylor for vagrancy, were discharged with a reprimand.

Edward Johnson, colored, arrested by officer Bennett for disorderly conduct, was fined $1.50.

Abel Douglas, colored, arrested by officer Jones for cutting Richard Reynolds, also colored, was fined $2.50 as was also the latter.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. H. McVeigh, who has been confined to his home for some time past by illness, is out again.

Mr. R. J. Thomas last night entertained a number of his friends at a delightful progressive evening party at the residence of his father, Mr. John A. Dixon, on Washington street.

Mr. Jim S. C. Wise and Miss Matie C. Wise, of Prince William, are visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Mary Johnston, of Warrenton, who has been visiting Mrs. J. J. Jamieson, left for her home this morning.

Miss Kate Houck, who has been spending the holidays at College Station, Md., has returned.

BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS.—The directors of the Mechanics' Building Association No. 1 met last night and declared a dividend of $1200 per share. The association has been in existence for five years.

The directors of the Mechanics' Building Association No. 2, which has been running but one year, have declared a dividend of 50 cents per share.

The directors of the Perpetual Building Association, which has been in existence but six months, last night declared a dividend of 25 cents per share.

All the building associations of the city will meet to-night at Concordia Hall for the election of officers for the year.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The Baltimore American says of "The Corner Grocery" the comedy to be presented here Saturday night: "The Corner Grocery is ridiculously funny, and it is all that has been represented—intensely amusing, absorbing in situation, and as clean in language as the most fastidious could require. The plot which is given in a lively style by the company, is simply a thread to string funny incidents upon; but it is fun of a highly concentrated quality, which would make any kind of a spectator laugh."

WILL FILED.—The will of the late Julius Rosenbaum, made in this city on September 3, 1887, leaves to his brothers, Sidney E. and James, his interest in the furnishing goods and hat business in Washington, and gives the remainder of his property to be divided equally between his parents and his sister Berta. His father, Emil Rosenbaum, of this city, is named as executor.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a meeting of Mechanics Lodge No. 3, K. of P. held in their hall on Monday evening, the following officers were elected: C. C. E. R. Byer; V. C. H. Nalls; P. Geo. King; M. A. E. Cump; K. R. S. C. E. Herbert; M. F. V. C. Moore; M. E. D. Webster; Trustees, R. R. Wiant, C. R. Herbert and George Bonitz.

At a regular meeting of Sarepta Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 46, on Tuesday night the following officers were elected: J. F. Houchins, N. G.; Wm. Simpson, V. G.; C. N. Rauch, R. S.; J. A. Field, T. Rev. Luther R. Dyott, chaplain; and W. D. Zimmerman, steward. Sarepta Lodge in the near future will rank among the largest in the city.
